TIME MANAGEMENT

time is one of the most valuble resources in our life. we should use it wisely and effectively.Time is one of the most precious gifts we have, yet we often realize its value only after it has passed. Every moment gives us an opportunity to learn, grow, and achieve something meaningful. Unlike money or possessions, lost time can never be earned back. We can manage our time wisely by making a daily schedule, setting priorities, and avoiding distractions. For example, students can finish homework before playing and prepare their school bags the night before. Good time management teaches us discipline, responsibility, and balance. Instead of waiting for the “right time,” we should make the most of each moment and use it to build a better future.
